Join us for the first event of our
Tenth Anniversary Speaker Series
RIVER TALKS

Featuring

Claire Shipman
River School Parent and
Co-author of Womenomics: Write Your Own Rules for Success

November 5, 2009, 7:00 p.m.

In Womenomics, journalist Shipman and her co-author Katty Kay provide a fresh perspective on the largely hidden power that women have in today's marketplace. Why? Companies with more women managers are more profitable. Women do more of the buying. A talent shortage looms. Younger generations want work flexibility. It all adds up to a workplace revolution that is great news for professional women—not to mention men and businesses as well.

Womenomics does more than marshal the evidence of this historic shift. It also shows women how to redefine success, be productive, and build satisfying careers that don't require an all-or-nothing lifestyle. Most appealing are the candid personal anecdotes from Shipman's and Kay's own experiences and the stories they have gathered from professional women around the country who are coping with the same issues.

Claire Shipman is a River School parent and is the senior national correspondent for ABC News' Good Morning America and a regular on This Week with George Stephanopoulos.
